

Mr. Ryan joined TLL in August 2011. Mr. Ryan's role at TLL is working with the children as an assistant teacher and recreation specialist. Mr. Ryan brings his experience of sports, coupled with his graduate degree from the University of Iowa in Health and Sports Studies. He is currently studying for his Teacher Certification. Mr. Ryan has worked with people with disabilities for several years, and is particularly sensitive due to his own personal experience with dyslexia, knowing how frustrating learning can be at times. Mr. Ryan loves getting to know each child individually and has fun whilst working at TLL.
