

Mrs. Laura joined TLL in August 2011. Mrs. Laura's role within TLL is as master teacher and behavior therapist. Mrs. Laura graduated from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, with a B.A. in Psychology. After graduation she worked at the Cleveland Clinic Center for Autism in the Early Childhood Program as a Classroom Behavior Therapist. While working at the Cleveland Clinic Center Mrs. Laura had the opportunity to participate in inclusion and reverse inclusion programs. She recently completed her Masters as an Intervention Specialist in Early Childhood Special Education, from Cleveland State University. Mrs. Laura has worked with children with autism in the school, clinic, and home setting, since college. After recently relocating to Houston from Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Laura wanted to work with children with autism utilizing ABA therapy. Mrs. Laura likes working directly with the children the most. Every day is a new adventure when working with children with autism; she never knows what they are going to do or say.
