

Steph graduated from Texas A&M University with a BS in Special Education and from the University of Houston with a MA in Communication Disorders. She completed all of the requirements necessary for certification as an SLP short of finishing a Clinical Fellowship Year which she decided to forgo in order to pursue her career as a behavior analyst. Steph has been a Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) since 2001 and has worked in ABA programs since 1997. Her experience includes consulting for in home and school programs for children with Autism locally and in other areas of the United States and Canada. She is Lifetime certified in the state of Texas as a General and Special Education teacher and as a Reading Specialist. She is also currently working towards certification as a BCBA.